April 21 58

Prof Gray

Sir: We have yr proof, & are very sorry we gave you so much trouble. We trust you will excuse correcting at once the corrected of yr new stereo, & proposing to go back to the old title, with the typographic amendments suggested - viz:

Botany for Young People, (largest line as page and Common Schools.

Part I.
How Plants Grow. Smaller

Part II
a Popular Flora do

~~of Utility~~ &c &c.

We wish printer to be particular about the imprints as have added to the proof.
We will send design for cover.

Yours Very Truly
Ivison & Phinney

P.S. A Teacher writes us that there is an error on p xvi of Manl. in Directions to unpractised students. about middle of page, where it is said Tradescantia is described on p 286 - which shd be 486 - which is so.

I & P.